

Daisy McAndrew

Presenter & Former Economics Editor for ITV News

"A respected voice in political journalism"

Daisy McAndrew is an accomplished journalist with more than 30 years' experience reporting on UK politics, economics and business as well as the British Royal Family. She currently presents multiple shows on talktv including The Talk and 1st Edition.

TOPICS:

- Politics
- Current Affairs
- The Economy
- Host and Facilitator
- Leadership and Decision-Making
- Gender Equality

LANGUAGES:

She presents in English.

IN DETAIL:

Daisy helped launch talkTV in April 2022 by hosting her own prime time news and current affairs show at 10pm. Since September 2022 she has presented the Drive Time show and the 7-8pm show as well her regular shows. She has had senior reporting roles at BBC and ITV News including Chief Political Correspondent, Economics Editor and Special Correspondent. She has presented the BBC's Daily Politics, multiple shows on TalkRadio, was the host of the O2 Business Show on LBC, Radio 4's The World Tonight, had a daily election show for London Live TV, the BBC's Heaven and Earth Show, ITV's Moral of the Story as well as presenting ITV Lunchtime News and the BBC's Weekend News. Beyond journalism, Daisy has applied her expertise in communication strategy to help organisations navigate complex issues and effectively convey their messages to the public.

WHAT SHE OFFERS YOU:

An experienced and accomplished corporate facilitator and host who has hosted and chaired countless awards and conferences for a wide variety of clients, Daisy McAndrew will also provide brief speeches relating to Economics and Politics.

HOW SHE PRESENTS:

Well used to the pressures of live events, Daisy has a relaxed manner and expertly presents and holds everything together, engaging well with audiences.